

Anastassiya Konstantinova

JR Salesforce developer/Front-End Developer

ABOUT ME

A business management professional looking to progress her career and enter the IT sector. Highly motivated, attentive to detail, can be independent, be a leader and work in a team. Diverse background and experiences, result-oriented.

Contacts

3486556241

anastassiya.zobenko@gmail.com

Competencies

Programming languages: HTML / CSS / Javascript / Salesforce / Java/Git

Languages: Russian (mother tongue), English (proficient), Italian (upper intermediate); German (intermediate).

Working experience

September 2016 - current time

General Manager at “Gastronom” (Sanremo, Italy)

Managed to create a successful business in a foreign country. Oversaw every operation since day 1. Established a fully operational food boutique that survived and thrived through pandemic.

November 2015 - August 2016

PR Manager at “PremierGroup” (brands “Messika” and “Vertu”)

Oversaw PR activities of the brands, communicated with the press, drafted PR budgets, prepared and managed in-store events, as well as outdoor events, fulfilled the needs of the boutique and its teams.

Educational background

May - September 2022

Develhope Salesforce (Sanremo, Italy)

Successfully completed the 2 months immersive program that included Salesforce basics and data analysis, as well as Java basics. Learned the basics of HTML, CSS, JS and GIT at the same school.

September 2009-June 2013

King's College London - Bachelor of Science in Business Management (London, England)

Successfully finished a comprehensive program in modern business studies.

Studied and completed a wide range of topics (finances, accounting, law, marketing, economics) that prepared me to manage my own business. Acquired an international working and collaborative experience.

September 1998 - May 2009 (Aktobe, Kazakhstan)

Secondary School with extensive German studies

Aktobe, Kazakhstan

Completed secondary school with distinction.